

Montevallo Arts Fest 2008

Prize Winners

At the Montevallo Arts Fest 2008 in Orr Park on April 12, prizes were given to both adult and student artists. Mack Clark, judge of the adult art, and Meg Boyett, judge of the student art, made their decisions during the morning and winners were announced at noon.

Adult Division

Best of Show ribbon and a cash prize in the adult division was awarded to Don Stewart of Homewood for his composite drawings. First place went to Andy Cummings of Indian Springs for his chainsaw wood carvings. Terry Waldrop of Northport won second place for his paintings, and third place went to Marilyn Huey of Springville for basket weaving.

Student Division

Student winners, all from Montevallo public schools, were awarded ribbons and cash prizes. Best of Show winner was the Montevallo High School Art class for its figure sculptures.

First place winners were Kye Taylor (Elementary School), Aaron Guy (Middle School), Molly Gewalt (Middle), Alex Moran (Middle), and Katie Howard (High School).

Second place winners were Isabella Howell (Elementary), Cain Lougher (Elementary), Zac Tutwiler (Middle), Chris McKenzie (Middle), and Phoebe Hurst (High).

Third place winners were Amara Burns (Elementary), Aubri Smith (Elementary), Brittany Smith (Middle), Alli Burr (Middle), and Joe Choi (High).

Adult Art coordinator was Montevallo Arts Council member Misty Bennett, and Student Arts Coordinator was Council member Kathy Stewart.